

Advance Display Easter Millinery

Our final and complete exhibit of charmingly correct Easter Millinery will occur on

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth

It will consist of what we consider, and what we confidently believe you will readily concede, is the greatest showing from whatever standpoint that we have ever made.

It will appeal especially to the style enthusiast and to the lover of the really beautiful.

MRS. W. A. JONES, "LEADING LADY" OF VIRGINIA DELEGATION, AND HER DAUGHTER

MISS JONES.
Washington, D. C., March 12.—Mrs. William A. Jones, wife of Representative Jones, of the First District, is "leading lady" in the Virginia congressional delegation, since ill health keeps the wives of the Senators at home.

A native of King and Queen county, Mrs. Jones was Miss Claude Douglas Motley, is a niece of former Senator Richard Coke, of Texas, and great-niece of that other Richard Coke who went to the Senate many years ago from Virginia. Those who know her best are most earnest in singing her praises as an official hostess for a State whose hospitality is proverbial the world over.

In appearance Mrs. Jones is most attractive, and many people think until otherwise informed that she is the sister of her young daughter, Anne Seymour Jones. This impression is doubly emphasized in the presence of her grown-up son, William A. Jones, Jr., now a student at the University of Virginia.

Like the majority of the women in her State, she is a fearless horsewoman, and enjoys nothing better than a canter on her favorite mount. Though popular in official society and much at home in all its gatherings, Mrs. Jones is devoted to her home, and husband and children are her first consideration. For her the modern "woman's rights" question resolves itself into what she is pleased to term every woman's right—namely, her bounden duty—to so train her sons that they will ever vote on the side that will produce "the greatest good to the greatest number."

Pinehurst Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Pinehurst, N. C., March 12.—With the question of the most elaborate and brilliant affair in the social history of the village was the annual spring cotillion at the Carolina, decorations, figures and favors in keeping with the occasion and the season. Assembled to enjoy it was a company which occupied every available seat in the music hall, and many stood throughout the evening. The decorations in pink and green, were exquisitely carried out; the front of the stage hung in white, festooned with the same effect carried out in the favor booths at either side of the stage, and on the wall panels about the hall. From the chandeliers hung garlands of green and clusters of pink flowers, the lights were shaded in pink and green, and the dancers' and matrons' chairs tied with clusters of mayflowers done in water-color; the work carried out under the direction of Mrs. C. S. Horton, of Williamsport, Mrs. Allan Lard, of Washington, Mrs. F. C. Johnson, of Springfield, O.; Mrs. Leonard Tutts, of Boston, and Miss Carolyn Fuller, of New York.

The program opened with a floral march in which the men carried huge red butterfly wands, and the women floral parasols. Spencer Waters, of New York, and Miss Harriet Horton, of Williamsport, who led, being preceded by four flower girls in pink and white; Misses Dorothy Ballantine, of Pittsburg; Margaret Johnson, of Springfield, O.; Dorothy Day and Elizabeth Day, of Derby, Conn. A second march was led by Paul E. Gardner, of Chicago, and Miss Ruby Sewall, of Kansas City, and figures by E. L. Scofield, Jr., of Stamford, and Miss Priscilla Beall, of Uniontown, and Ralph N. Gardner, of Chicago, and Miss Carolyn Fuller, of New York.

The hit of the evening was the "atopplechase," the "set up" of the perfect, six hurdles in all, with a take-off on the start, and including a hedge, brush jump, judges' stand, starter, bookmaker, betting ring and all. Three teams were driven tandem about the hall, a young woman driving two young men and vice versa, and certainly the Derby never provoked more enthusiasm. In another novel figure partners were selected by a wheel of "fortune," and in a third, by matching broken hearts. In a fourth figure men and women looking for all the world like mammoth nine-pins were selected as partners by bowling, with a hanging ball, mammoth cigars proved to be young men when the tips were torn off, and strange snow men and soldiers were found to be young women. The favors were roses and poppies, floral canes and paper bows, huge sunflowers and parakeets, musical pipes and siren horns; the program ending with the "Will o' the Wisp" march, in which with lights turned out, the dancers carried sparklers, a confetti and penitence miles concluding the evening.

The patronesses were Mrs. J. W. Tutts, of Boston; Mrs. F. C. Johnson, of Springfield, O.; Mrs. Leonard Tutts, of Boston; Mrs. F. C. Johnson, of Springfield, O.; Mrs. C. S. Horton, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Allan Lard, of Washington.

Coming Monday and the annual tin whistle ball, a fancy dress party, on the 21st. Bridge continues popular, and many informal dinners are being given. Out of doors, paper, chase, moonlight rides, bonfire suppers and saddle picnics are drawing congenial groups together. The weekly baseball games attract big crowds, and trap shooting and tennis tournaments have combined with the annual spring golf tournament to make the week an unusual one.

Late Virginia arrivals include J. N. Burger and E. R. Hart, of Suffolk.

Newbern Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Newbern, N. C., March 12.—W. B. Blades, E. B. Cockburn, Geo. A. Nicol, P. S. Cox, William Dunn, Sr., L. J. Taylor, A. H. Bangert and D. W. Richardson, of Dover, are spending a week on the Sound, near Portsmouth and Ocracoke, hunting and fishing. The party are using Mr. Blades' palatial houseboat, the Comfort.

A country club has been organized by quite a number of Newbernians, with Dr. N. M. Gibbs, as president; M. D. W. Stevenson, vice-president; William Dunn, Jr., secretary, and J. S. Claypool, treasurer. They propose to erect a clubhouse on the Trent River, several miles above Newbern, and to have a place where one can while away the time and enjoy life. The various other clubs have been elected, and the promoters expect to get to work at once.

The district conference of the Methodist Church for the Newbern District will be held at Snow Hill, Greene county, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 14, 15 and 16.

The baraca class of Centenary Church have organized a baseball team, with J. Leon Williams as manager, and they are now making arrangements for a ground. The class has also organized a literary society, with E. H. Harrison, president, and C. O. Selfert, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Blades, Miss Ivy Blades and Master William Blades have returned home from a trip around the world, which lasted about six months. The party traveled by way of the Suez Canal, Singapore, Yohohama, and Honolulu, and had a most delightful trip.

Mrs. M. M. Marks spent several days this week in Chapel Hill, visiting her son, Albert, who has been quite sick for several weeks, but he was able to return home with Mrs. Marks.

Mrs. R. A. Richardson is visiting relatives in Richmond.

Captain Matt Many, of Norfolk, Va., treasurer of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad, spent a few days visiting friends in Newbern this week.

Mrs. Mark Disoway is visiting her son, Dr. A. W. Disoway, in Plymouth, N. C.

Miss Ruth McCue, of Harford, Conn., and her sister, Mrs. Wiley, of Boston, are stopping for a short time at Mrs. Walter Duffy's, on New Street.

Mrs. S. H. Lane is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Lester, in Goldsboro.

Miss Reba Now, of Durham, was in the city visiting friends for several days in the early part of the week.

Miss Sarah Davis, of Beaufort, is visiting Captain and Mrs. Joe Gaskill, on Hancock Street.

Mrs. W. S. Chadwick, of Beaufort, is spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Uzzell, on Follock Street.

ARTHUR J. CRAFTS.

WE'RE IN A FIX!!

Have you room for a fine Piano in your home? We'll place one there Free. Pay the balance at the rate of $1.50 or $1.75 per week or $6 monthly, as you choose.

MORE ABOUT CRAFTS-RAMOS CONSOLIDATION SALE AND ADVERTISING TEST
THE ABOVE LETTER TELLS THE STORY.

To-morrow is the last day which Ramos Piano Company will occupy No. 214 North Fifth Street. They must move, and the above letter from the president of our company explains the situation.

Pianos which were contracted for prior to the consolidation are being shipped. The manufacturers refuse to hold up shipments, but insist that we live up to our part of the contract. After to-morrow all Pianos of both companies will be located at Fifth and Grace Streets.

Do not put off attending to this any longer! Call early in the morning—bring this advertising test Certificate with you. The situation must be clear to you, and if you have any earthly use for a Piano, ACT NOW!

Since two weeks ago, when this sale first opened up, no less than one hundred Fine Pianos have been disposed of. This is the greatest selling record ever known. It demonstrates more forcibly than anything we can say that prices and terms of ownership have never been so attractive as now.

We must find homes for the remaining Pianos before there will be any relief in sight. In the past we have presented many money-saving opportunities, but never before have circumstances over which we have no control necessitated such drastic action. We have made the most unprecedented reductions in prices, realizing that in so doing was our only hope of disposing of so large a number of Pianos quickly.

You can secure now several choice, brand new, warranted makes of Pianos for $1.50 per week; others go for $1.75 per week or pay $6.00 or $7.00 monthly, if you prefer. All instruments are marked in plain figures at the reduced lowest cash cost. Every instrument is unconditionally warranted in every respect.

CUT THIS OUT—WORTH $30

Bring this Advertising Test Certificate with you—select any Piano in our stock. We will accept this certificate as first payment on the Piano. You make your next payment one month later.

$2.00 FOR $1.00

Should you desire to pay any cash, in addition to this certificate, we will give you a receipt for $2 for every dollar you pay up to $30.

EXAMPLE:

Present this Certificate and get a receipt for $30.00
Present this Certificate and pay $5 in cash and get a receipt for $35.00
Present this Certificate and pay $10 in cash and get a receipt for $40.00
Present this Certificate and pay $15 in cash and get a receipt for $45.00
Present this Certificate and pay $20 in cash and get a receipt for $50.00
Present this Certificate and pay $25 in cash and get a receipt for $55.00
Present this Certificate and pay $30 in cash and get a receipt for $60.00

We cannot begin to tell you half in this limited space. Ask your friends and neighbors who have been here, or, better still, drop in, see and judge for yourself. In the past we have been able to present many a saving opportunity to the piano-buyer, but, our word for it, this is the greatest offer we have ever made the public. Don't wait or delay. Be on hand the first thing to-morrow morning. Be sure to cut out and bring this advertising certificate with you. It will be accepted as just that much actual cash. Raleigh Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—The Fortnightly Review Club was fortunate this week in having for hostess Mrs. T. E. Jernan. The club is just now making a study of the part the new West is taking in American literature. For the meeting this week, four Western writers were considered, there being papers on the life and works of each, by members of the club. They were F. R. Hart, by Mrs. William Grimes; Walt Whitman, by Mrs. Robert Strong; Mark Twain, by Mrs. James H. Poul, and James Whitcomb Riley, by Mrs. Julian Timberlake. Mrs. Jernan had as special guests Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, Mrs. Carlisle, Roxboro; Mrs. Rorell, Biltmore; Miss Mary Cole, Miss Brem, Charlotte; Mrs. Albert Anderson and Mrs. J. J. Thomas. Mrs. Jernan served dainty refreshments, and provided a delightful afternoon for every guest.

The art department of the Woman's Club entertained Thursday afternoon, holding a special art meeting, at which "Heraldry—Its Origin and History, Uses and Abuses," discussed lucidly by Mrs. Hillard Hinton, who is chairman of the art department. There was also an art exhibit in connection with the meeting, that was greatly enjoyed by the club women. As members of the art committee with Miss Hinton as chairman, there are Miss Julia Royster, Miss Ida Poteat and Mrs. J. Bryan Grimes.

Miss Eva Christman and C. D. Lane, both of this city, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon by the Rev. W. McC. White, of the First Presbyterian Church in the presence of quite a party of relatives and friends. The wedding was at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. D. P. Christman, on Hillsboro Street.

Wednesday afternoon the Johnson-Pettigrew Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, was entertained by Mrs. J. S. Wynne, at her home on North Wilmington Street. There was a brief business session, followed by a season of social enjoyment. Mrs. Wynne provided dainty refreshments.

An organ recital at St. Mary's School Monday afternoon attracted a large company of prominent people, and was immensely enjoyed. Miss Bertha Luney was assisted by Miss Nell, soprano; Miss Sherwin, violinist, and W. D. Simpson, cellist.

Mrs. R. O. Burton was hostess for the Tuesday Afternoon Book Club this week. The members are making a study of myths and legends this winter, and there were papers at this meeting on "The Holy Grail" and other legends, together with a number of readings that were much enjoyed. Mrs. Burton provided special entertainment that made the meeting one of great social interest. There were in addition to the club members a number of women present as special guests.

Mrs. Burton. These were Mrs. C. B. Aycock, Mrs. R. W. Winston, Mrs. Carlton, Roxboro; Mrs. P. M. Harper.
